BOHEMIAN GRAN FONDO

WHAT, AGAIN?

Dear sportsmen,

The Bohemian Gran Fondo will take place September 23rd, 2017, once again in Cesky Krumlov.

Maybe for some I could end my letter there. The first sentence already says it all. But for those who would like to know more, I will add a couple novelties that this year's edition will bring along:

1) The routes

a. The longest route, 5KM, will be a little longer (230 km), but significantly "higher" (5465 m). There are not many more events of this kind, worldwide, for amateur cyclists.

b. The differences between the different routes have been accentuated, both elevation gain and length wise.

c. Every route has been change at least a little. For more information, go to: www.bohemiangranfondo.cz.

2) The registration and the start

a. The start of all the routes will now be on the parking lot P3 in the southern part of the historical center of Cesky Krumlov.

b. The registration will take place in the Dům dětí a mládeže building (Center for Children and Youth) beside the parking lot P3

3) Registration fees

a. Are remaining virtually unchanged, progressively only changing as the date of the BGF approaches

b. Especially for those who have already participated in the BGF in its previous editions, the registration fees will be at a discounted price the last week of June

4) The competitions of the BGF 2017

a. All the results from the competitions will once again be held relative to the individual times and results in each of the four timed sections. Two timed sections remain unchanged (CK-Klet/Plansky and Arnostov-Dlouhy Hrbet), one is a shorter version of one of last year's timed sections (Hejdlov-Kleť/Plánský) and the last timed section is a brand new section of the route (Cesky Krumlov- Krizova hora).

b. For the first time, the winners of the competitions, both male and female, will be awarded with small financial prizes.

Every year, your interest is the reason why we decide to prepare another edition of the BGF. We would like to thus thank you for your shown interest and encouragement. We are very thankful, and at the same time feel a sense of responsibility to bring you yet another successful BGF. But there is something I would like to ask you as well.

Since the beginning, we have decided to donate money, that was brought by your registration fees, and the volunteered time of many not for marketing purposes, but for the support of various charitable projects. For these purposes we have already donated approximately half a million of Czech crowns. We would like to continue building up the interest for the BGF, as well as continue getting information about the BGF out to as many people as possible. Please, share the BGF with as many people in your circles of friends and family, Facebook groups and social media and put your share to making the BGF known to others. We truly count on you.

And, finally, we hope to see you again on the start of one of the five routes of this year's edition of the BGF on September 23rd, 2017.

For the entire BGF 2017 team,

Jiri Hlach
